

Article 51

Duration

51.1 This contract shall be effective through June 30, 2008. All proposals on articles opened during 2005-2006 negotiations excluding articles on which tentative agreement has already been reached (Articles 10, 15, 17, 13, 14, 16, 18, 19, 100, 101, 102, 103, and 104) shall roll-over for continued negotiations commencing February 1, 2007.

Prior to December 15, 2006, the ACE negotiating team and the District negotiating team shall meet to review the current ground rules to facilitate the process of reaching agreement on the remaining articles.

51.2 To facilitate administration of this agreement, the District and ACE shall establish a Contract Administration Committee. The Committee shall consist of the negotiating teams for ACE and the District and the Ace President and the Associate Vice Chancellor of Human Resources. ~~The Committee is composed of the ACE President, the ACE Chief Negotiator, the Director of Human Resources and the District's Chief Negotiator.~~ The Committee shall meet monthly, as needed, for the purpose of ~~the committee shall be to reviewing~~ contract interpretation issues where contract language is susceptible to more than one interpretation when questions of interpretation become an issue. The committee shall have no authority to change or otherwise modify contract language. If contract language is clear, any changes believed to be necessary by either party shall be referred to negotiations, either during reopener negotiations or during negotiations for a new contract. ~~Minutes~~ Notes of the contract administration meetings shall be maintained by both parties.*

District

ACE

Date

Date